Freeman, Allen highlight 2007 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STERLING, Va. – Mary Hardin-Baylor linebacker Jerrell Freeman is the D3football.com South Region Defensive Player of the Year and Mississippi College receiver Jake Allen is the D3football.com South Region Offensive Player of the Year, while Muhlenberg coach Mike Donnelly is the South Region Coach of the Year.

Freeman, a senior from Waco, Texas., has forced three fumbles, broken up seven passes, compiled six sacks and a team-high 16.5 tackles for loss for the South Region champions entering the Crusaders' semifinal game at UW-Whitewater on Saturday. He ends the reign of Wesley defensive end Bryan Robinson, who was the 2005 and 2006 Defensive Player of the Year and is a first-team selection this year as a senior.

Allen, a senior, caught 61 passes for 1,254 yards and 12 touchdowns for the Choctaws in 10 games. He set single-season school records for receiving yards in 2006 and 2007. Donnelly led his Mules to the first unbeaten regular season in more than a century of Muhlenberg football as well as a first-round playoff win against Salisbury.

The teams, selected in balloting by South Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 210 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 75 players were chosen. For more information please contact D3football.com publisher Pat Coleman at (703) 868-4364 or by e-mail at pat@d3football.com.
