Ogun, Henri highlight 2008 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINNEAPOLIS – Christopher Newport running back Tunde Ogun is the D3football.com South Region Offensive Player of the Year and Mary Hardin-Baylor linebacker Eric Henri is the D3football.com South Region Defensive Player of the Year. LaGrange coach Todd Mooney was named South Region Coach of the Year in the site's annual regional awards.

Mooney took his Panthers, in just the third year of the program's existence, from an 0-10 record to a 9-2 mark, the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title and a trip to the NCAA playoffs.

Ogun, a junior from Richmond, Va., ran for 1,794 yards in 10 games for the Captains this season, scoring 17 total touchdowns and averaging 6.7 yards per carry as Christopher Newport won the USA South Athletic Conference title.

Henri, a senior from Lake Dallas, Texas, has recorded 89 tackles entering the Crusaders' national semifinal game Saturday against UW-Whitewater. He has 11 and a half tackles for lost yardage and three sacks, while recovering five fumbles on the season.

The teams, selected in balloting by South Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 205 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 75 players were chosen. For more information please contact D3football.com publisher Pat Coleman at (703) 868-4364 or by e-mail at pat@d3football.com.
